Juvenile Review Board Members Needed!

Are you a caring adult that wants to make a difference in the lives of Fairfield Youth?
Join the Fairfield Youth Services Juvenile Review Board.

Contact Detective Beth Leetch at the Fairfield Police Department, bleetch@fairfieldct.org for more information.

GOAL: The overall goal is to divert youth from the Juvenile Justice System, when appropriate, by handling the case through the JRB.

WHAT DOES THE JRB DO?

- * Works with Fairfield juveniles under the age 18 who are first time offenders.
- * Provides local intervention which help youth in the most direct and meaningful manner.
- * Offers supportive services to both youth and families.
- * Promotes self-respect and, in turn, respect for others.
- * Encourages young people to face their responsibilities.
- * Assesses and makes recommendations that would be in the best interest of each youth.

HOW DOES THE JRB WORK?

- * Referrals are made to the JRB by the Fairfield Police and Superior Court for Juvenile Matters.
- * Waivers to gather appropriate information are signed by the youth and his/her parent(s) or guardian(s).
- * All referrals are held in the strictest confidence. The diversion process is entirely voluntary.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE JUVENILE REVIEW BOARD MAY INCLUDE:

- * Personal responsibility – restitution, letter of apology, essay, community service, attend a MADD Class.
- * Prevention – support to individuals and families, alcohol, drug and other counseling, and/or involvement in positive youth development activities.
- * Support for families – counseling and/or referrals for additional services.
