CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF FAIRFIELD

ARTICLE I - INCORPORATION, GENERAL POWERS, CONSTRUCTION, ORGANIZATION AND STANDARDS^A

§1.1. Title¹.

The Charter of the Town of Fairfield (the “Town”) shall be the organic Law of the Town in the administration of its local affairs.

§1.2. Incorporation and powers².

All the inhabitants dwelling within the Town, as previously constituted, shall continue to be a body politic and corporate under the name of the Town and shall have all powers and privileges and immunities previously exercised by the Town and not inconsistent with this Charter, the additional powers and privileges conferred in this Charter, and all powers and privileges conferred upon towns under the General Statutes of the State of Connecticut as the same may be amended³.

§1.3. Rights and obligations⁴.

All property, both real and personal, all rights of action and rights of every description and all securities and liens vested or inchoate in the Town as of the date when this Charter shall take effect are continued in the Town, and the Town shall continue to be liable for all debts and obligations of every kind for which the Town shall be liable on the effective date, whether accrued or not. Nothing shall be construed to affect the right of the Town to collect any assessment, charge, debt, or lien for the construction, alteration, or repair of any public improvement.

§1.4. Definitions.

A. Definitions and Titles Generally⁵. The definitions contained in the General Statutes of the State of Connecticut shall govern the interpretation of this Charter; unless otherwise defined herein. Articles and Section Titles are for the purpose of ready reference and shall not be held to limit, extend or effect the interpretation and meaning of the text.

^A [HISTORY: Adopted by ballot of the Town of Fairfield 11-7-2006, effective 11-27- 2006 (“2006 Charter”)^A. Amendments noted where applicable.] Editor’s Note: This enactment supersedes the former Charter adopted by the Representative Town Meeting 11-4-1997, effective 11-24-1997. Comment from the 2022 Charter Revision Commission: The annotations set forth herein are not definitive or comprehensive. The effort is a first step in the process of recreating the historical antecedents to the current provisions of the Charter as well as showing the continued impact, if any, of Special Act provision adopted prior to the adoption of the Home Rule Act and Article Tenth of the 1965 Constitution of the State of Connecticut.

NOTE: When the term “edit” is used in these annotations it means a minor grammatical change or conformity revision. When the term “modification” is used, it means a more substantive change, which may be described in the footnote. Where not described, we recommend a careful review of the current and previous charter in order to ascertain the difference.

CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF FAIRFIELD

§1.5. Standards of Conduct³⁵.

A. Declaration of Policy³⁶. Town Officials, RTM members and all employees of the Town shall demonstrate by their example the highest standards of ethical conduct, to the end that the public may justifiably have trust and confidence in the integrity of government. As agents of public purpose, they shall hold their offices or positions for the benefit of the public, shall recognize that the public interest is their primary concern, and shall faithfully discharge the duties of their offices regardless of personal considerations.

B. Conflict of Interest³⁷. No Town Official, RTM member or any employee shall:

(1) Solicit or accept any gift, directly or indirectly, whether in the form of money, loan, gratuity, favor, service, thing or promise, or in any other form, under circumstances in which it can reasonably be inferred that the gift is intended to influence the Town Official, employee, or member in the performance of official duties; (Nothing in this paragraph shall preclude the solicitation or acceptance of lawful contributions for election campaigns).

(2) Disclose confidential information gained by reason of the office or position or use such information for the personal gain or benefit of anyone;

(3) Knowingly have or acquire any financial interest or any personal beneficial interest, direct or indirect, in any contract or purchase order for any supplies, materials, equipment or contractual services furnished to or used by the Town in connection with any project, matter or thing which comes within the Town Official's, employee's, or RTM member's jurisdiction or the jurisdiction of the Board, Commission or any other body of which the person is a member (unless such interest is acquired through being the lowest responsible bidder after public advertisement); or

(4) Engage in any business transaction or activity or have a financial interest, direct or indirect, which is incompatible with the proper discharge of the official duties or which may tend to impair the independence of judgment in the performance of the Town Official's, employee's, or RTM member's official duties³⁸.

C. Disclosure of Interest³⁹. Any Town Official, RTM member, or employee who possesses or who acquires such private interest as might reasonably tend to create a conflict with the public interest shall make disclosure thereof to such Board, Commission or body and such person shall be disqualified from action on any matter involving the private interest.

D. Fair and Equal Treatment⁴⁰. No Town Official, RTM member, or employee shall use an official position to secure or grant special consideration, treatment, advantage, privilege, or exemption to himself or herself or to any person beyond that which is available to every other person.⁴¹ This provision is not intended to prevent an RTM member from properly representing the people of the member's district.

E. Penalties and Disciplinary Action for Violations⁴². The failure to comply with, or any violation of, the standards of conduct established by this Charter shall be grounds for the removal from office, discharge from employment of the offending Town Official, RTM member, or employee, and the Board of Selectpersons in its discretion may void any contract entered into or adopted in violation of this Charter. The Board of Selectpersons or the Ethics Commission may recommend disciplinary measures for RTM members who fail to comply with, or who violate, these standards, but the RTM retains the final authority to discipline its members.

§1.6. Rules of Order and Civility⁴³.

Town Officials and employees shall treat members of the public with respect and expect the same in return in official in-person or virtual/electronic interactions. The Town is committed to maintaining orderly administrative processes and in keeping Town administrative offices free from disruption.

A. The Workplace and Town Operations. In the workplace and other official interactions this Charter promotes mutual respect, civility and orderly conduct among Town employees, Town Officials, Members of the RTM and the public. This section is not intended to deprive any person of his or her right to freedom of expression, but only to maintain, to the extent possible and reasonable, a safe, productive, and harassment-free workplace for Town staff and a safe and non-threatening environment for the public. The Town encourages all parties to engage in professional, respectful, and courteous communication and discourages hostile, intimidating, or otherwise disruptive actions.

B. Public Meeting Decorum. The Town is committed to the democratic process, the rule of law, individual rights of expression, robust debate, and tolerance for disparate views and the building of better community relationships through increased empathy, greater awareness and decreased reactivity. The Town's elected and appointed Boards and Commissions, the RTM and other public bodies and various community groups, including, committees, task forces, or other like entities (created pursuant to §4.2.B(4)(c)) all convene public Meetings to address, from time to time, controversial issues that may engender passionate and often conflicting opinions. An atmosphere of incivility and disrespect at these Meetings can stifle participation and debate, threaten the quality of decisions and undermine the local democratic process.

CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF FAIRFIELD

C. Rules of Order. In order to effectuate these provisions of the Charter, the Town may adopt Ordinances generally governing the conduct of public Meetings in accordance with this Charter.

(1) Parliamentary Guidance: The General Rule⁴⁴. Robert's Rules of Order shall, as a general rule, regulate the conduct of all Meetings of the RTM and all elected and appointed Boards and Commissions of the Town, unless the RTM or particular Board or Commission otherwise specifies.

(2) Adoption of Rules. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the RTM and each elected and appointed Board and Commission may adopt rules of order in order to conduct public Meetings and government business in a civil and orderly environment. The rules shall be adopted by a vote of two-thirds (2/3rd) of the members of the Board or Commission, following review by the Town Attorney to ensure that the rules are based on best practices in parliamentary procedure and consistent with the open meeting requirements of the General Statutes and this Charter.

D. The Role of the Presiding Officer. The presiding officer of the RTM and each elected and appointed Board and Commission shall be responsible for maintaining the decorum at public Meeting and for the uniform enforcement of rules of order.

E. Compliance with Rules of Order and Decorum. Likewise, all persons who attend a public Meeting shall comply with any lawful order of the presiding officer to enforce rules of order and decorum. In all circumstance, members of the public and all public officials shall be expected to follow the rules of the body and shall not engage in disorderly conduct, uncivil language or actions as may be defined by Ordinance, Regulation or rules of order of the body.

F. Breach of Rules. In the event any person breaches the rules of order pertaining to civility in a manner that disturbs, disrupts, or otherwise impedes the orderly conduct of the Meeting, the presiding officer shall order that person to cease such conduct. The presiding officer has the authority to order a member of the public, public official or member of the body to leave the public Meeting in the event of continued violations following an initial order from the presiding officer. If said initial order to cease the offending conduct is not obeyed and said conduct continues in spite of an escalation of additional orders from the presiding officer, the party may be removed from the Meeting. Removal of a person at an in-person event may be facilitated by a Sergeant at Arms or law enforcement officer. At a virtual or hybrid Meeting the presiding officer may block the person from participation. Members of appointed Boards or Commissions may be subject to removal in accordance with the provisions of §6.7.A.

§1.7. Open Meetings and Public Records⁴⁵.

A. Records⁴⁶. Each Elected and Appointed Board and Commission and committees, task forces, or other like entities (created pursuant to §4.2.B(4)(c)) shall keep a complete and accurate record of its official acts, votes, Meetings, and proceedings and shall have custody of its correspondence, files and other records and shall designate one of its members or its clerk to keep such record. The minutes and recordings of Boards and Commissions shall be public records, in accordance with the General Statutes, and shall be open for public inspection (A) at the office of the Town Clerk, during regular business hours; and, (B) on the Town website.

B. Open and Public Meetings⁴⁷. All Meetings of the RTM⁴⁸ and all other Elected and Appointed Boards and Commissions and all committees, task forces or other like entities, shall be open to the public except for executive sessions permitted by the General Statutes, and all appointed Boards and Commissions, and all committees, task forces or other like entities shall comply with the State freedom of information laws unless otherwise provided by the General Statutes or Law.

§1.8. Diversity on Boards and Commissions⁴⁹.

The active, informed, inclusive, and equitable engagement of community members, both individually and collectively, is an essential element of healthy civic life and a thriving local democracy. All Appointing Authorities (as defined in §6.4.A) should take into consideration the knowledge, expertise, experience, and, to the fullest extent possible, the diversity of residents and the geographic areas of Town when considering the composition of Boards and Commissions. Diversity on Boards and Commissions should, in its broadest sense be considered to include, but shall not be limited to^B, race, color, ethnicity, religious creed, age, sex, national origin, ancestry or culture, status as a veteran, socio-economic status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, familial and marital status, pregnancy, or physical and mental disability.

^B Comment of the 2022 Charter Revision Commission. The listing in this Charter is not exclusive since it reflects the current state of protected classes under federal and state law. It is fully expected that as those classes are modified by Congress or the General Assembly, the new protected classes will be deemed covered as if they were specifically included in the enumeration.
